UM ALUMNI ASSOCIATION ELECTS LIVINGSTON LAWYER TO BOARD

MISSOULA--

Byron L. Robb, a retired Livingston lawyer and former judge for the 6th Judicial District, has been elected to a three-year term on The University of Montana Alumni Association's board of directors.

Robb joins five other newcomers to the 22-member board: Bill Mercer of Missoula, assistant U.S. attorney for the District of Montana; Geoffrey Sutton of Missoula, owner of Sutton West Gallery; Daniel J. Sullivan of Butte, executive manager of information systems at Montana Power Co.; Rachel S. Smith of Suwanee, Ga., a fashion sales representative; and John C. Wertz of Arlington, Va., senior vice president and chief operating officer of Banner Aerospace Inc.

Robb earned degrees in business and law from UM in 1954 and 1956, and practiced law for 26 years, six of those as attorney for Park County. He later served 12 years as judge for the 6th Judicial District. Robb belongs to the American and Montana bar associations and participates in many civic organizations, including Kiwanis Club and Masonic Lodge.
